

thousand dollars of assessed value of the taxable property in the township, excluding any property within a benefited fire district or within the corporate limits of a city, for the purpose of exercising the powers granted and duties specified in section 359.42. However, in any township having a fire protection service or ambulance service agreement or both service agreements with a special charter city having a paid fire department, the township trustees may levy an annual tax not exceeding fifty-four cents per thousand dollars of the assessed value of the taxable property for those purposes the services authorized or required under section 359.42 and in any township which has a common boundary with a city having a population of one hundred eighty thousand or more, the township trustees may levy an annual tax not exceeding sixty-seven and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value of taxable property for fire protection service or ambulance service purposes or for both purposes the services authorized or required under section 359.42.

2. If the levy authorized under subsection 1 ~~of this section~~ is insufficient to provide ~~fire protection service and ambulance service~~ the services authorized or required under section 359.42, the township trustees may levy an additional annual tax not exceeding twenty and one-fourth cents per thousand dollars of assessed value of the taxable property in the township, excluding any property within the corporate limits of a city, to provide the ~~ambulance service services.~~ The township trustees may divide the township into districts for the purpose of providing the ambulance service and fire service and may levy a different tax rate in each district, but the tax levy to provide ambulance service shall not exceed twenty and one-fourth cents per thousand dollars of taxable assessed value in a district.

3. The township trustees may divide the township into tax districts for the purpose of providing ~~fire protection service~~ the services authorized or required under section 359.42 and may levy a different tax rate in each district, but the tax levied in a tax district for ~~fire protection~~ the authorized or required services shall not exceed the tax levy limitation limitations for that township as provided in this section.

CHAPTER 1009
SANITARY DISTRICT TRUSTEES
S.F. 2050

AN ACT relating to the election and terms of office of sanitary district trustees.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Section 1. Section 358.9, unnumbered paragraph 1, Code 1983, is amended to read as follows:

At the election provided for in section 358.7, the names of candidates for trustee of the district shall be written by the voters on blank ballots without formal nomination, and the board of supervisors which had jurisdiction of the proceedings for establishment of the sanitary district, together with the board of supervisors of any other county in which any part of the district is located, shall appoint three trustees from among the five persons receiving the greatest number of votes as trustees of the district. One of the trustees shall be designated to serve a term expiring one year from the next succeeding June 30 on the first day of January which is not a Sunday or legal holiday following the next general election, one to serve a term of expiring on the first day of January which is not a Sunday or legal holiday two years from that date later, and one to serve a term of three expiring on the first day of January which is not a Sunday or legal holiday four years from that date later. Their successors shall each serve terms of three years commencing July 1 of the year in which they are chosen. Thereafter, each term shall be six years. Successors to the initial trustees may be chosen by appointment by the same board or boards of supervisors which made the initial appointments or by election, at the option of the remaining trustees. If election is chosen, a successor shall be elected at the general election preceding the expiration of the term to be filled.

Sec. 2. TRANSITION TERMS EXTENDED. Notwithstanding section 1 of this Act, for the purpose of transition from three-year terms to six-year terms for trustees of sanitary districts in existence immediately before the effective date of this Act, the terms of the trustees elected or appointed in those districts shall expire as follows:

1. The terms of trustees elected or appointed for a three-year term beginning July 1, 1981, shall expire January 2, 1985.

2. The terms of trustees elected or appointed for a three-year term beginning July 1, 1982, shall expire on January 2, 1987.

3. The terms of trustees elected or appointed for a three-year term beginning July 1, 1983, shall expire on January 3, 1989.

4. The terms of trustees elected or appointed for a three-year term beginning July 1, 1984, shall expire on January 2, 1991.

Thereafter, the trustees of sanitary districts shall be elected or appointed to six-year terms of office as provided in section 358.9.
